

July 30, 2011

Eighth Annual!

www.theramble.org

RAMBLE COORDINATOR:
DARSHANA BOLT
67 Greene St.
Burlington, VT 05401
TELEPHONE
(802)-535-8976
[rambler@the
ramble.org](mailto:rambler@theramble.org)

Please Become a Sponsor and Support the Arts (and Barbecues!)

To donate or participate, please visit our website or direct emails to the Ramble Coordinator. Thank you very much! Coming soon...look for sign-up sheets around town!

The Ramble is a free, annual dawn-to-dusk celebration that takes place in Burlington's Old North End.

Participants fill the streets with bicycles, costumes, an abundance of live music, art, games, savory home cooking, yard sales, quixotic performance art, and a general air of whimsy and mayhem. Community members and businesses will join forces to make this year's eighth Ramble on July 30th a magnificent union of art, life, and summer revelry! DIY theater, art shows, parties, free markets, and an all-day explosion of local music all over the North End make this phenomenal event stand out as a day devoted to free expression and simple joy. Don't miss it, for the last Saturday in July is truly a day to be remembered. Even if you aren't from Burlington's quirkiest neighborhood, be sure to stop by and join in the fun! theramble.org

Revelers revel!